St Charles Opening New Pharmacy

St Charles Health System is opening a pilot community pharmacy in Madras in the late Spring, helping to fill a critical health need and improving access to prescription medication. Many community organizations came together through funding and support, including Central Oregon Health Council, which provided $460,000 in funding. The new pharmacy will be located at the site of the former Hometown Drug.

Once opened, the pharmacy will fill prescriptions, in store and via drive-up window, and provide immunizations, medication management, injections for long-term care needs and retail sales for over-the-counter medicine and durable medical equipment.

January Is Stalking Awareness Month

Saving Grace, staff and volunteers are raising awareness of an often-misunderstood crime, stalking.

1 in 3 women and 1 in 6 men will experience stalking in their lifetime. Stalking isn't persistence, a sign of romance, or normal. It is a patter of behavior designed to cause fear.

It could be:

- Unwanted calls or messages
- Following someone to their home, work or gym
- Cyberstalking or tracking on social media

Saving Grace can provide stalking survivors with legal assistance and safety planning. If you or someone you know needs help, call the confidential helpline: 541-389-7021.

Together, we can raise awareness, support survivors and stop the normalization of stalking.

THE LOVE DRESS

Callie's mother-in-law, Jean, stopped by, unexpectedly, at her recently married son and daughter-in-laws home. She rang the doorbell and stepped into the house.

She saw her daughter-in-law, Callie, standing naked by the door. "What are you doing?" She asked.

"I'm waiting for Edwin to come home from work," Callie explained.

"But you're naked!" exclaimed Jean.

"This is my love dress," Callie said.

"Love dress? But you're naked!" said a bewildered Jean.

"My husband loves me to wear this dress! It makes him happy and it makes me happy. I would appreciate it if you would leave because he will be home from work any minute." said Callie.

Jean was tired of all the romantic talk and left. On the way home she thought about the love dress.

When she got home she undressed, showered, put on her best perfume and waited by the front door. Finally her husband came home.

He walked in and saw her standing naked by the door. "What are you doing?" he asked.

"This is my love dress," she replied.

"Needs ironing," he said.

Visual Demonstration

A minister decided that a visual demonstration would add emphasis to his Sunday sermon.

Four worms were placed into four separate jars.

The first worm was put into a container of alcohol.

The second worm was put into a container of cigarette smoke.

The third worm was put into a container of chocolate syrup.

The fourth worm was put into a container of good, clean soil.

At the conclusion of the sermon, the Minister reported the following results:

The first worm in alcohol - dead.

The second worm in cigarette smoke - dead.

The third worm in chocolate syrup - dead.

The fourth worm in good clean soil - alive.

So the Minister asked the congregation....
"What did you learn from this demonstration today?"

A little old woman in the back quietly raised her hand and said, "As long as you drink, smoke and eat chocolate, you won't have worms!"

Yep, little old ladies are simply AWESOME!

Jan 29 · January Nature Night
Register on-line to join the livestream, 8:30 pm. Join Deschutes Land Trust and wildlife biologist Aaron Bott to take a closer look at wolves and how they interact with the landscape of Central Oregon. Wolves are one of North America's most iconic animals, occupying a unique and complex role in the natural world. In the last few decades, Oregon has experienced the gradual recolonization of wolves, representing a notable shift in natural systems. These top predators are deeply connected to the lands they inhabit and the other animals that sustain them, exerting influences that are both small and far-reaching. Aaron will explore wolf biology and ecology, focusing on their natural history, adaptations, and roles and behaviors in the natural world within the context of Oregon's recovering wolf population.

Historic short stories about Oregon's famous ghost town, Shaniko. Fun and informational "corner". ~ Submitted by Debra Holbrook

Shaniko & Transportation (part 2)

From the time gold was discovered in Canyon City, OR in 1862, as was the Homestead act passed by Congress that year, freight and stage travel exploded from The Dalles and into the interiors of Eastern Oregon (all OR east of the Cascades). Once Shaniko had a railhead in 1900, freight and passengers were still moving further into those areas on wagon wheels. Shaniko became a hub for shipping which brought the commodities of the interior to a closer location, bringing a highway of business and human travel.
